

Tucson, Arizona

Conductive Education®

Winter 2010 Program & Holiday

Sat., Jan. 30 to Sat., Feb. 6

Enjoy a week in the sun combining Conductive Education®, sightseeing, respite and a holiday in beautiful Arizona

$2599 per person includes:

- Attendant care services as required
- Return air from Toronto. Alternate departure cities available (package costs may vary)
- Land Only cost $1810/per person
- Ground transportation from Phoenix to Tucson (airport to hotel)
- Double-occupancy accommodation at our hotel, "The Lodge in the Desert"
- 7 breakfasts plus 5 additional meals included (at hotel)
- Three two-hour sessions of Conductive Education® (for stroke survivors/adults with CP) on Mon., Wed., and Friday. Sessions hosted by qualified Conductor at the Gaitway Centre. Friends can be shopping, golfing, sightseeing, etc during these times.
- 2 complimentary day-trips to a choice of the following beautiful destinations:
The Arizona-Sonoma Desert Museum / Tombstone / Old Tucson
- 2 one-hour Pilates classes at the Gaitway Centre
- Fees, taxes and gratuities

Who should attend?

- Stroke survivors & their families & friends
- Adults with cerebral palsy & and their friends & families

Conductive Education® is a program combining elements of rehabilitation and education to assist people with neuro-motor disabilities in becoming more mobile and independent.

REGISTER TODAY

1-800-263-3463 ext. 7300
ce@marchofdimes.ca

www.marchofdimes.ca/travel